CORRESPONDENCE: Letter from Italian Heritage month checking to see if Fiori is going to have an event for the heritage month of October

OLD BUSINESS:

Picnic: went over very well. kids had a fun time. Donut game was fun. It was very hot. It was suggested that September may be better because of the heat. The park was good however it was suggested that maybe a different location could be found to just change venue. Terri suggested maybe a pool party at her residence. However, it must be in August or earlier..

Columbus Day: Anna says everything on track. Anna made radio commercials for parade to be broadcast week before parade. Anna had candy for sale for Columbus Day committee.. Fiori Float needs to be worked on. It is currently located at 58th and Tennyson. Float needs wiring work. The work should be started now. Also, the licensing needs to be resolved.

Polenta Fest: In view of the short time, the idea has been shelved because of lack of time for planning.

Andiamo: subscribers receive paper hot off the presses before store placement.

Italian heritage: No one attended however, Little Italy center going good .

NEW BUSINESS: Dee suggested a committee for an entertainment committee. Motion made and passed. Dee & Tom will do south side. Barb & bill will handle the north side. Anna is to check on park at 36th and Kipling.

Motion made to buy Columbus Day Parade raffle tickets. The motion passed and the tickets were bought.

West side story at Buelle Theatre needs at least 25 people to receive group discount.. Date is Dec 28th or 29th. Cost will be At least 40.00. Sandra needs a commitment of 25 before we know what the final cost of the tickets will be.
